This seminar will provide attendees with an in-depth analysis of the fair housing laws and how these laws relate to the real estate professional in practice. Additional topics covered include fair housing advertising, fair housing in property management, enforcement and cultural diversity. The course includes updated and new case studies that demonstrate the real-world applications of fair housing law and regulations. Course includes the textbook Fair Housing authored by Marcia Russell, DREI.

This course offers 6 hours of NMREC

Instructor: Marcia Russell, DREI, Marcia Russell Seminars

March Luncheon - If You Think He Has a Gun...HE DOES!

Thursday, March 25, 2010

11:30 am—1:30 pm at the Marriott Pyramid North

Members - $30 Prior to 3/18/2010 ~ $35 After 3/18/2010
NonMembers - $45

Keynote Speaker: Matthew Archuleta

"Why do the cops wear black hoods at my property?"

"Why am I afraid of DWI checkpoints?"

Do you ever hear any of your residents asking these questions? Whether you have or haven't, it's never too late to get informed on Crime Prevention. Join us for a very informative and entertaining luncheon about the woes and worries of crime on property and how to get your community crime-free!
